

WHERE IN THE WORLD IS

DR. PREM REDDY

Prime Healthcare CEO on the Lam, Refuses to Come to the Table and Bargain a Fair Contract With Striking Nurses

Prime CEO Prem Reddy might be able to fly away from the bargaining table, organizing nurses, and nurses fired for lawful union advocacy in a helicopter paid for by the hospitals (once the topic of a Medicare waste, fraud, and abuse investigation), but he can't hide from nurses forever.

Let's track him down.

Is Prem trying to beat the summer heat at his beach house in Laguna valued at $2.5 million?

Featuring a spectacularly unobstructed ocean view, this Reddy crib is maybe Prem's most likely location. But with several other lavish estates in the family he could be practically anywhere except at the bargaining table.

Is Prem in Brentwood? Maybe he's staying with his daughter Kavitha and her husband Sunny Bhatia, Presidents of the Prime Foundation and Prime Healthcare at their est. $21.3 million Brentwood mansion?

Concealed from the street by a 20 foot privacy hedge, it's the perfect place to hide from nurses advocating for safe staffing. Just a few doors down is Prem's other daughter (and Prime's Chief Revenue Officer) Sunitha's estimated $8.8 million dollar abode if he prefers something a bit more modest.

Or maybe Prem's out partying again with Sunitha, whose extravagant seven figure wedding featured a six figure paid performance by John Legend. Another week or so at the Waldorf Astoria Monarch Beach Resort where the wedding was held (rooms as low as $1,500 a night this week, not including services) could be exactly what he needs to decompress from the stress of his workers asking to be treated fairly. Unfortunately between treating patients in understaffed facilities and having to track down their own boss to bargain, Prem's workers don't have time for pop-star diversions at the moment.

Or perhaps Prem is back on the family estate in Apple Valley, of gold-plated toilet fame, where 8.5 acres of land and 15,000 square feet provide plenty of seclusion. While its distance from LA is likely what led to Reddy's helicopter commute in the first place, it's conveniently located near Prime's Desert Valley Hospital, out of which the Reddys run a host of sketchy real estate shell companies.

Wherever in the world Prem Reddy is, the bargaining table is where he should be.
