

WE FILED! ST. JOSEPH HEALTH REGIONAL HOSPITAL RNS WILL VOTE YES TO JOIN NNOC/NNU!

On Tuesday, September 9, nurses at St. Joseph Health Regional Hospital petitioned the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) for a union election to join the National Nurses Organizing Committee, an affiliate of National Nurses United, the largest nurses' union in the United States with more than 225,000 RN members. NNOC/NNU also represents some 14,000 RNs in the CommonSpirit system at 30 hospitals across the country!

What's Next »

- After the cards are confidentially verified by the NLRB, they will confer with both CommonSpirit and NNOC/NNU to decide the election details.
- The secret ballot election will be conducted by agents of the NLRB.

More details to come!

Our Platform for Change

- »» RN voice in decision making that prioritizes patient-oriented care over CommonSpirit profits.
- »» Enforceable staffing grids that account for patient acuity, adequate support staff, and staff break relief.
- »» Recruitment and retention of experienced RNs through a fair and transparent wage system that includes annual guaranteed raises, improved differentials, and bonus shift pay.
- »» The right to collectively bargain a contract negotiated by nurses that holds management accountable to safe and transparent practices and working conditions across all units of the hospital.
- »» Effective security and workplace violence prevention measures.
- »» Establish safe floating practices that ensure patient safety.
- »» Functional, safe, and modern equipment to suit patient needs.

For more information, please contact an organizer at 813-579-7801

OUR PATIENTS. OUR UNION. OUR VOICE.

